NJSIG’s Business Development Specialists attended the Fall ASBO meetings and many member safety committee meetings.

With the NJSBA Conference upon us, NJSIG has prepared three group sessions throughout the week. The sessions titled: “Know Your Ethical Obligations and Avoid Costly Complaints” and “Family Medical Leave: Understanding FMLA and NJFLA” will both be 1 QPA credit and will take place in NJSIG’s meet and greet room (#415) which will include hospitality. NJSIG can also be found on the convention floor in booth #635.

Safety and Risk Control

We are now utilizing vendors for inspections, defensive driving training and CPR/AED.

- H&S Inspections for Property Inspections
- I-Core Systems for Defensive Driving
- Lifeforce USA for CPR/AED

Inspections/playgrounds: 47 inspections completed
Nonviolent crisis intervention trainings – 2 completed
CPR/AED Trainings – 11 completed
Defensive driving – 8 completed
